ANNOUNCEMENT

Whereas authorized to announce
MR. WEBB C. BELL,
Of Christian County, as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner in the First Railroad District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election Nov. 1903.

The Vendome theatre, in Nashville, was destroyed by fire.

Admiral Schley will be in Louisville January 29 and 30.

Admiral Sampson is losing his mind and is in an almost hopeless condition.

The Hopkinsville Independent has changed from a semi weekly to a weekly.

Miss Myrtle Holloway won the Eddyville Tale's prize offered to the most popular young ladies in Lyon county.

There are twelve teachers, nine doctors and four editors in the Kentucky Legislature. Lawyers and farmers predominate in the make-up of the General Assembly.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey have gone to Palm Beach, Fla., where they will remain for an indefinite period. The trip is for the special benefit of Mrs. Dewey's health, which demands a change of climate.

Nathan Stubblefield, the Murray scientist, who has invented a wireless telephone, made a successful test last week, sending and receiving messages from a mile or more.

The young man and woman who climbed to the top of the court house in Evansville to be married, evidently wanted to take a bridal tower without leaving home.

The Oldham county giant, A. A.
Powell, who is 7 feet 7 inches high, was last week married to Miss Mattie Kerlin, of the same county, who is 4 feet 5 inches tall.

As was to be expected, the ruling by the postoffice department, requiring newspaper subscriptions to be discontinued when out, has been modified, or rather explained away.
It was a special ruling for one paper only with a fake circulation.
It does not apply to legitimate publications.

Miss Edith Collie and Mr. Louis Root, of Louisville, were married Wednesday afternoon at the Marcus Lindsey Memorial church in Louisville, by Rev. P. L. King, a brother-in-law of the bride. They left at once for an extended trip in the South. Miss Collie is the daughter of Rev. D. L. Collie, formerly of Cádiz.

Hanna finally won out in the struggle with the Forakerites to control the organization of the lower house of the Ohio Legislature. Some idea of how it was done may be gathered from the fact that Price, the Foraker candidate for speaker, in accepting his defeat, declared for Hanna as his own successor.
Foraker has probably realized that in politics every man has his Price.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, actually reaching the blood and mu-surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient the assisting nature in doing it. The proprietors have fronted their curative powers.
For One Hundred Dollar case that it fails to cure, or list of testimonials.

Get the Most
Out of Your Food

You don't eat and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it.
It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled especially in summer with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B. HICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
and Pills

Strengthen and tone the stomach and the whole digestive system.

The January number of Table Talk published at Philadelphia, opens with an article entitled "The Conventional Way of Setting the Table," by Mrs. Burton Kingsland of New York city, an acknowledged authority on etiquette. This article alone is worth the subscription price of the magazine for a year, as it is invaluable to women who are interested in knowing the latest fashions for the table that will be in vogue for 1902.

"Housekeeping in Mexico, by one who resides there is very interesting. "How it is done in Burmah," by a long resident in that country, will tell of the odd ways and customs. A valuable article about mumps and chicken pox is one written by a nurse of long experience. Many other practical articles and illustrated dishes continue to keep it in front of all household magazines. Recent numbers free or January number, for 10c to the Table Talk publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

The Century for January (New Year's number) is not less interesting than its two predecessors. In the "Year of American Humor" there is a group of contributions. "The Gentleman of the Plush Rocker," by Mrs. Ruth McEgery Stuart, is a unique study of the negro. Ellis Parker Butler, author of "The Reformation of Uncle Billy," succeeds in playing a new tune on an old string in "Eliph Hewlitt Castaway," a story of a book agent; James Whitcomb Riley contributes half a dozen character poems entitled "A Few Neighbor Children"; and the series of "Policeman Flynn's Adventures," by Elliott Flower, is brought to an end. Charles Battel Loomis writes of "New Year's Day Twenty Years Ago," and there are humorous contributions in the department called "In Lighter Vein."

Scribner's Magazine has seldom had a better union of a great subject with the right man to treat it than in the series which begins in the January number on "The American Commercial Invasion of Europe." Frank A. Vanderlip, on resigning his position as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury last spring went to Europe with letters from the highest American officials to the ministers of finance and other leaders in industry and commerce in all the great nations. Fresh from an intimate association with the industrial and financial problems in this country, he was peculiarly fitted by aptitude and training to appreciate the bearings of the problem abroad.
The key-note of his articles is that "the industrial world is as yet by no means prostrate at our feet. We have before us a long campaign of hard work." It is the aim of Mr.
Vanderlip's articles to point out the directions in which this hard work must be done. They have been written with unusual clearness and vivacity, so that the general reader will find them as entertaining as the capitalist and manufacturer will find them instructive.

Illustrated short action has a prominent place in this number.
The story of the return of an artist from Paris to the "Pennyrile" district of Kentucky is most amusing and even pathetically described by Ewan Macpherson. The illustrations by Kellar are reproduced in color.

Christian county has more people than either Warren or Daviess, both of whom have two representatives. Give Christian two and we will guarantee that one will always be a Democrat.

The phenomenal increase in the rural free delivery service of the Postoffice Department will undoubtedly induce Congress to make the service permanent, and without question appropriate what may be necessary to extend it. At the beginning of the fiscal year 1899 there were less than 200 rural delivery routes in operation, while at this time there are upward of 6,000 and applications pending for the establishment of as many more. By the close of the current fiscal year, if the estimates of the Postoffice Department are realized, 5,700,000 people will be receiving their mails through rural delivery carriers.

It is given out from Owensboro that Hon. H. D. Allen, Representative from the second congressional district, announces over his signature that he will under no circumstances be a candidate for a third term. This leaves the field open to a number of aspirants from almost every county. Christian county will have a candidate in the person of Commonwealth's attorney W. R.
Howell. Mr. Allen is likely to enter the race for Governor.

District President James D.
Wood and Vice President Kit Barnaby, of the United Mine Workers of America, who have been in jail at Henderson charged with being accessory before the fact to the murder of Morton Bush, a non-union miner at Providence, in November, were admitted to bail in the sum of $4,000 each.

Rev. C. L. Kloss, of Webster Groves, Mo., who edits a paper, editorially advises the young women of his congregation to propose marriage if the men continued too bashful. He complains that in a membership of 300 there were only a dozen marriages last year.

Judge Geo. DuRelle is a candidate to succeed himself as appellate Judge from the Louisville district, subject to the Republican party.
Judge Henry S. Barker will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

In the January Arena, Miss Eugenia Parkam, of Mayfield, has a very ably written article on the "Brotherhood of Man." Miss Parkam possesses literary attainments of a high degree.

A CANING.

The Finale of a Meeting of the Fiscal Court.

A special meeting of the Fiscal Court was held last Thursday to receive the reports of the special committees for receiving and disbursing the turnpike funds. The report made was ordered to record.
The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"We, the members of the Christian County Fiscal Court, in body assembled, recognizing and knowing the faithfulness of Polk Cansler, as Judge of the Christian County Court, do hereby wish to place upon record our unqualified appreciation of his services as such Judge."

Squire J. T. Dixon, just before adjournment, on behalf of the Court, presented Judge Cansler with a beautiful gold-headed cane. As the court over which the Judge has presided is equally divided in political faith, he doubly appreciates the compliment thus bestowed. The head of the cane bears the following inscription: "Fiscal Court to Judge Cansler—1901."

Took Two Shots.

Dr. R. F. McDaniel discovered a prowler on his premises last Friday evening and attempted to take him in charge. The negro ran, and, being closely pursued, suddenly turned and fired two shots at the physician. Both balls went wide of the mark and one of them passed through a window of Maj.
John W. Breathitt's residence, lodging in a dresser.

Groom Aged 75.

Elijah Sellers, aged 75, married Mrs. Annie Vogel, aged 44, in Henderson county. The groom is one of the most extensive land owners in the state.

Judge McGhee Qualifies.

Mr. Hugh C. McGhee qualified before the County Clerk here last Friday as Police Judge of Gracely.
Mr. J. P. Meacham became surety "Doctors not seldom give up a case, but a mother never does. While life lasts, while there is a spark of vitality which love's labor may fan into a flame, she toils unflinchingly for the child she brought into the world. And sometimes where the doctors fail the mother succeeds.

She has no prejudices. Any means she will use which will save her child."

The mother's prescription given below is a case in point. Her daughter was given up by physicians as suffering from an incurable disease, called "wasting of the digestive organs." The mother prescribed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription," and had the happiness of seeing her daughter restored to perfect health.

Dr. Pierce's
Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It is a nerve-nourishing, flesh-forming medicine—making new blood and new life.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.
It is a true temperance medicine.

"My sister (of Arlington, Washington Co., Neb.) was taken very sick and had several doctors," writes Mrs. C. L. Harrison, of Elk City, Douglas Co., Neb. "They could not do her any good, and told my mother they would not come any more, as no doctor could help her, that she could not get well. She had 'wasting of the digestive organs.' My mother said to my sister:
'Well, I almost know that Dr. Pierce's medicines will cure her.' So she bought six bottles—three of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' three of 'Favorite Prescription,' and some of the 'Pellets,' and now my sister is a well woman."

"We thank you for your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr.
R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

OBITUARY.

To the Memory of M. Lewis.

Dear grandfather is sweetly resting in the arms of our dear Jesus.

'Twas on one dark, stormy Sunday night. There was not even a star to be seen, which often shines so bright, that God called one of his most faithful servants home to rest.

How lonely 'tis without him.

Though God knows best.

And if we were all only ready to go to dwell forevermore in peace with him. His head was already almost as white as snow, and his steps had grown very slow, though now dear grandfather is sweetly resting in the arms of our dearest Jesus.
Away out in the cold in a little strip of woods there is a sacred mound remembered by many and loved by all who know it, beneath which dear old grandfather was laid.
Close beside is a mound under which one of his beloved sons has been sleeping for many years.
Dear grandfather's precious body is in the cold ground all covered with ice and snow, but that does not harm him now. For his soul is sweetly resting in the arms of our dearest Jesus.

The eighth night of December will ever be remembered with sadness and regret.

This faithful servant was born 1821. He had spent 80 faithful and happy years in Kentucky. At the age of 29 he took home for his beloved wife Miss Cassandra Ricketts. She proved a faithful wife for 51 years, and from the loss of her beloved husband her grief is almost unsurpassed. He had for many years been an attentive father, and a very kind and dear grandfather. He loved his wife, his children, his wide circle of friends and his dear old home.

Though now he has left all and is sweetly resting in the arms of our dearest Jesus. X. X. X.
